STATEMENT

Mrs. Anastasia Sakellariou, CEO of Hellenic Financial Stability Fund (Fund), regarding Eurobank's forthcoming capital increase stated: "The Fund respecting its scope, objectives and institutional role, is reviewing how to ensure a successful transaction for Eurobank in the interest of financial stability.

We are working closely with the management of the bank in the finalization of the restructuring plan that will address all areas for further capital savings through financial and operational measures. Naturally, we remain committed to executing the transaction within the timeline set by the Regulator in order to strengthen Eurobank's capital adequacy."
